PROPERTY SUMMARY

Sierra Vista Casitas - 201 W. Fry Blvd Sierra Vista, AZ 85635

Sierra Vista Casitas is a charming two-story complex that offers a mix of beautifully designed studio, 1BD/1BA, 2BD/1BA, and 3BD/1BA units. The subject property was originally built in 1957 and recently renovated in 2021 & 2022.

Renovations and upgrades to the exterior include stucco & paint, pool, landscaping, driveway, roof, and heating/cooling units. The common areas were also drastically improved with office upgrades, the addition of a workout facility, and individual mailboxes.

The property consists of some non-renovated units, renovated units, and furnished rentals. The renovated units went through upgrades with flooring, paint, cabinets, fixtures, appliances, shower/tub surrounds, and bathroom upgrades.

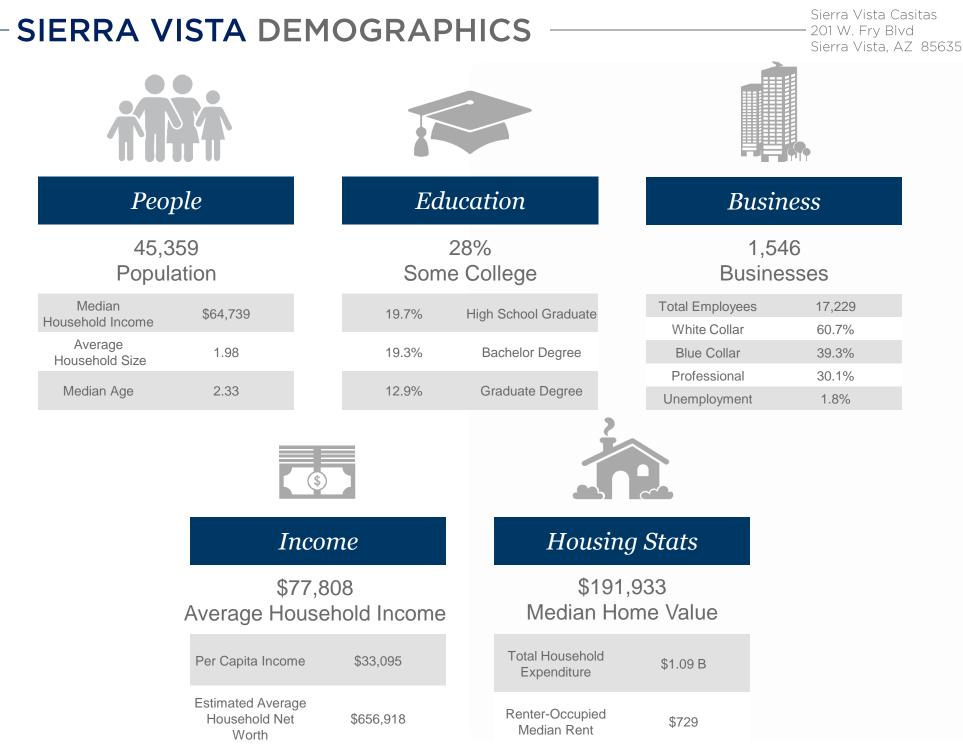

The furnished units are attractive to those working on the large military base just around the corner, Fort Huachuca, as it gives tenants quality furnishings for the duration of their lease.

The communal pool, BBQ and picnic area, dog park, on-site laundry, and clubhouse with a fitness center provide excellent amenities for tenants. Utilities are paid for by the owner and a RUBS program is in place to recoup some of those costs.

SIERRA VISTA OVERVIEW

Sierra Vista holds a thriving economy, with a median family income of $80,334 and a cost of living that's -4.2% lower than the national average, making it an attractive city for people to relocate to as Arizona's population increases. Its unemployment rate of 1.8% is significantly lower than Arizona's statewide rate, thanks to the many industries the city offers in management, business, government, medical, and retail.

Fort Huachuca, situated within Sierra Vista, adds to the city's economic prosperity with its contribution of $2.86 billion and 21,327 jobs. As the largest unmanned aircraft systems training facility globally, it also holds the distinction of maintaining the leading civilian defense contractors in the country, making it an excellent option for military employees and their families.

Cochise College is also thriving, thanks to the newly built Canyon Vista Medical center, which is a level 3 trauma center serving Sierra Vista, Ft. Huachuca, Cochise County, and other neighboring communities. With 7,600 patient visits, 800 births each year, and 28,000 annual emergency room visits, it has emerged as a vital institution in the area.

Sierra Vista's educated workforce is a testament to the exceptional quality of its educational institutions, including Wayland College, Cochise College, and the University of Arizona. With 32.2% of the population holding a bachelor's degree or higher, the city is well-positioned for continued growth and development. Additionally, from business incentives to tourism, Sierra Vista has much to offer, making it a desirable destination for anyone seeking a thriving economy, low cost of living, and sunshine year around.

ABOUT FORT HUACHUCA

Fort Huachuca is a historic Army base located in Cochise County, Sierra Vista. The base is located 15 miles North of the Mexican border.

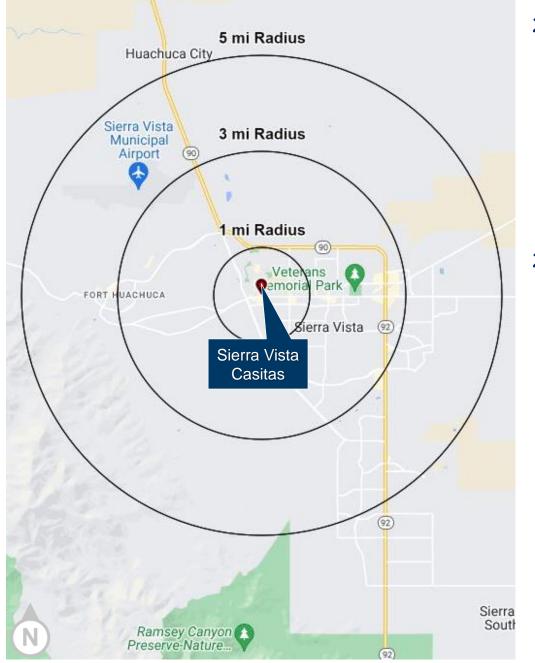

Fort Huachuca serves as the residence of numerous military facilities and organizations, including the U.S. Army Intelligence Center of Excellence, the U.S. Army Network Enterprise Technology Command/9th Army Signal Command, and over 48 extra tenants that include a diverse population of military personnel from various branches of service.

It plays a significant role in the economy of Arizona and is, in fact, the biggest employer in Cochise County. It is the center for the development and testing for Command, Control, Communications, Computers, Combat Systems, Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance. The Fort is also a target for intelligence and unmanned aircraft systems training and education. It designs, integrates, and provides intelligence capabilities, concepts, and doctrine, all while delivering world-class quality support services to the community. This support helps enable mission command in support of Army and Joint operations and ensures the continued evolution of Fort Huachuca.

It is responsible for training over 12,000 students per year. The Fort is home to a diverse population of military personnel and civilians, with over 5,600 Military members and 8,000 Civilian personnel at any given time. In addition, the Fort also has more than 11,000 family members living in the surrounding area.
